TECHNOLOGY & PERISCOPE:

- Leticia Acevedo recorded this meeting on periscope
- Leticia and Shauntea Denton will post the link after every meeting on Facebook
- Joneen Lannon will then share the link on twitter
- Joneen Lannon will look into different options and apps for sharing PTO information through social media, such as the app Dr. Mayer suggested: IF THIS THEN THAT
- Board will look into possibly changing the Facebook page so that families can directly post pictures after events.
- Board will also look into our insurance for these changes
- Dr. Mayer is looking into 2 different tablets for grades K-2nd
- 10 inch Samsung tablet for the 1st and 2nd grades: $350 per tablet (includes case)
- Asus 7 inch Tablet for the Kindergarten classes: $185 per tablet (includes case)
- Dr Mayer is also looking into purchasing more Chrome-books: $285 per Chrome-book
- Dr. Mayer said all the purchases of these items are on hold because the district is not being clear in what their future technology plan is.
- Dr. Mayer is very hesitant to purchase $9000 in technology if the current wifi system is unable to handle all of it.

Winter Dance

- Profit: $1782.14
- Spent: $2162.00
- 2015 family dance profit was $598.72
- Difference of $1183.42
- Best event turn out of the year
- All feedback was very positive
- Only a couple of suggestions: confirm date so that it doesn't happen on the same date as the middle school dance, more cookies, figure out a better place for snacks and drinks so that the kids can have more dance space, and go to a new place for flowers.
- Kerri Ledman will write up new plan for future Family Dance Coordinator

KM 2nd & 3rd Grade Concert

- February 9th
- Joneen Lannon sold the flowers
- All flowers were sold by start of show
- Jewel in Zion again let us down on the customer service, the quality and the quantity of the flowers. Kim Rossmann will look into Tony's Flower Shop in town for the Applebee's Pancake Breakfast event and 4th/5th Grade Concert
- Profit was only $0.77
- Spent $96.00

PBIS ASSEMBLY WITH CURTIS HED
